STRAND THEATRE

THURSDAY and FRIDAY

SEPTEMBER 9TH AND 10TH

THE REVENGE OF

TARZAN

The Third and Greatest of the wonderfully popular "Tarzan" pictures. Taken from "The Return of Tarzan," the second of Edgar Rice Burrows' famous books. In story value, tense interest, acting and thrills this picture is fully the equal of "Tarzan of the Apes" and "The Romance of Tarzan," which have been seen and enjoyed by millions and has the additional advantage of having been made nearly two years later, thereby gaining the benefit of improved methods in photography and direction.

The Strand management has enjoyed a pre-release showing of this new Tarzan picture, and unhesitatingly recommends it as one of the big photoplay treats of the year.

REPUBLICS TAKE TWO FROM THE CHEVROLETS

had his game won, and their interest ebbed.

Devogt, former manager of the Republic Trucks, was in the game both Saturday and Sunday, behind the plate. Boyle had been ill during the week, and Smith, who caught at Charlotte last Wednesday, was out with a split finger. Devogt cracked out 2 of the Republic hits.

OBITUARY

Addie B. Sanders was born September 16, 1880, and departed this life August 26, 1920.

She spent her childhood days in and around the village of Elm Hall. On September 1, 1897, she was united in marriage to Eugene Walker. To this union came two children, Lula Fay, who passed from this world four years ago, and Amy Maier now residing near Lansing.

Throughout her entire sickness of over eight years she retained her cheerful and loving ways.

She leaves to mourn her loss a husband, Eugene Walker, a daughter, Amy Maier of Lansing, two sisters, Mrs. Hal E. Frisbe of Detroit and Mrs. Frank Duford of Saginaw, and one brother, Lee Sanders of Boyne City, and many other relatives and hosts of friends.

A Grateful Letter

It is in trying conditions like that related below by Mrs. Geo. L. North of Naples, N. Y., that proves the worth of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy. "Two years ago last summer" she says "our little boy had dysentery. At that time we were living in the country eight miles from a doctor. Our son was taken ill suddenly and was about the sickest child I ever saw. He was in terrible pain all the time and passed from one convulsion into another. I sent my husband for the doctor and after he was gone thought of a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy in the cupboard. I gave some of it and he began to improve at once. By the time the doctor arrived he was out of danger."—adv. 63-5w

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank the kind friends and neighbors, during the bereavement of our wife and mother, for their kind assistance, also for the many beautiful floral offerings.
